THE BRONZE PESTILENCE.

ITS DEADLY GRIP RELAXING

NEWS FROM THE INFECTED DISTRICTS. NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 1 .- Weather clear and cool. Deaths, 8; cases reported, 80; total deaths, 3,937; total cases, 13,163. All-Saints'-day services took place in the Catholic and Episcopal churches. The decoration of tombs in cemeteries was general and elaborate and visitors were more numerous than usual. Of the eighty cases of fever reported to the board of health today, only four are classed as new cases. Physicians who have not reported cases be-back several weeks. VICKSBURG. Vicksburg, Nov. 1.—Another day has passed with but one death in our city. Miss Henriette Jones died of consumption. One yellow fever death is reported for the coun-fore are now reporting them, some dating

try. Two new cases are reported in this city-Tom Phelan and Jacob Hertzel. We had a good freeze last night. Quite a num-ber of requests have been received from refugees asking permission to return, but all have been warned against such a move, for nine-tenths of the cases during the past week or two have been returned refugees. The quarantine restrictions on the Vicksburg, Shreveport and Texas railroad have een removed, and travel is unobstructed between this city and Monroe, La-CHATTANOOGA. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 1.—One death to-day—C. W. Curry, a promising young druggist from Nashviile, clerking in Eastman s. No new cases. Much to the gratification of citizens generally, we had a heavy frost and good freeze this morning. Cold and clear all day. Another frest is expected to night. The thermometer at 9 P. M. stood at 40.

HOLLY SPRINGS. HOLLY SPRINGS, Miss., Nov. 1.—Six new cuses and one death yesterday; four new cases to-day, no death. Heavy frost fell last night; prospects of another to-night. The hospital closed to-day, and many business houses are opened. JACKSON, MISS Jackson, Miss., Nov. 1 .- Five new cases but no deaths for three days. Total cases, 416; deaths, 66. Population the past month estimated at 3,500. Henry E. Singer, an old citizen, will probably die to-night. Ice last right.

GREENVILLE, MISS.
GREENVILLE, MISS., Nov. 1.-No new cases of fever here. There was a decided freeze last night, after a fine frost the preceding day. The board of health deem it safe for refugees to return. MEMPHIS.

Мемрита, Nov. 1.—Business is fairly resumed, and nothing is heard about the recent pestilence except occasionally some en-thusiastic hero is heard relating what he saw and did during the epidemic. To those who suffered the loss of family and friends, and who have summoned sufficient courage to return to business. the scenes and trials are laid away in the heart among the unpleasant archives of the past. Those who passed through and survived are disposed to speak of the terrible past in a flippant manner. The tide of returning absentees continues to flow into the city, taxing railroad companies to their utmost for transportation facilities. The streets have been thronged all day with people, a goodly number being the first instalments of merchants from the interior, come in to replenish their depleted stocks of goods and to sell cotton. The latter article is arriving daily in immense quantities. Business is itself again so to speak, and Memphis can again lift her head above the fearful tide that nearly swept her from the face of the earth.

A BOY'S IDEA OF BOYS.

Norwich (Conn.) Bulletin A Norwich teacher was practicing her youthful class in original composition yesterday, and gave one pupil the subject "Boy" to write upon. The subject was to be treated on in three parts-first, what is it? second, what is its use? and third, what is it made of? The lad wrestled hard for a few minutes in desperate perplexity. and then wandered up to the teacher's desk radiant with enthusiasm and submitted the following: "A boy is an animal; his use is to carry in wood; he is made of bones."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, October 31, 1878. Hon. Frank Hurd, hardest of hard-money Democrats, elected to Congress from the Toledo district of Ohio, has just been "interviewed" in New York. Of the Democratic presidential nomination for 1880 Mr. Hurd said: "I believe Mr. Thurman to be the proper man for the Democrats to nominate. He is, in fact, the only man who can carry the state of Ohio against a popular Republican candidate, and if the party thinks the electoral vote of that state necessary to elect its presidential candidate it will nominate him." That Mr. Hurd speaks the opinion of Ohio Democrats generally, and of a vast number of Eastern and well as Western stock before purchasing elsewhere. She Democrats, is certain. Mr. Thurman is certainly without regard to politics, the most influential member of the present Senate. At the last session of Congress, especially, was this perceptible in a great deal of many other things new in the notion line, the legislation. In the Presidency or else- which she can and will sell as cheap as any where he would reflect credit upon the

If there be any truth in the rumor now current that Mr. Tilden will refuse to allow the use of his name in connection with a nomination for any office, his determination was probably reached before what is spoken of as the cipher telegram exposure. Mr. T. is not the man to withdraw in the face of slander. One version of the story of withdrawal is that he communicated his intention to Mr. Hendricks, a year or so ago, when the two met at Saratoga. But, however various the versions, it may be sately said that it is current belief here that Mr. T. has written the letter, and that he cannot be considered as in the way of any other gentleman who desires or whose friends him to be a candidate.

Those who read the Radical bluster the November states, should remember that most of it originates with Eugene Hale. chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee. They should also remember that, a few days before his 3,000 majority was turned into 3,000 minority. In the September election, he boasted that he should be elected by a larger majority than before. That is the kind of prophet he is. Another significant fact is that much was expected, lately, from the changed attitude of the administration as to Southern affairs, and from stories of outrages in the South. But in both these things it is becoming plain that the hope was a delusion, as it should be. If the Democrats lose a congressman here and there through local dissensions in strong Democratic districts, the loss will be more than made up in the steady and irresistable tendency of people all over the country to quit the Radical party.

Mr. Schurz made his second speech of the campaign in Boston on Monday evening. As in his Cincinnati speech, he seems not to have advanced any new idea on the finances, the subject on which he talked, but he grouped together skillfully the points made by others, and this, with his attractive manner of speech, seems to have pleased the Bostomans. Mr. Schurz should devote his time to making speeches.

No man not born to our language and habits has ever been more popular than he.

Besides that, it is his nature to talk, and it is impossible for him to help thinking about talking, whether he talks or not. And while he talks and thinks about talking. his subordinates manage the Interior Department. To be sure little carruption has been discovered during his term as Secretary, but there were never before so many delays and contradictions, or so much vacillation in the conduct of business. With its present head, or, perhaps, lack of head, the perpetration and discovery of unprecedented frauds in the Interior Department is only a question of time.

A naturalist claims to have discovered that crows, when in flocks, have regularly organized courts, in which they sit around and try offenders -a sort of crow-bar, so to speak.-Boston Globe.

A livery stable keeper, of Springfield, Mass., recently drank all the milk given by a cow he thought of buying, and refused to take her because she could not give as much milk as he could drink.

A once wealthy merchant of New York now lives in that city on two dollars a week; one dollar and a quarter of that amount goes for his room, thirty-five cents for his meals, and the balance for washing Sloth makes all things difficult, but in-

When Benjamin Franklin arrived in Philadelphia he calmly walked up the street with a loaf of bread under his arm. But he couldn't do it nowadays. Somebody would steal his bread before he got half a block away from the river. The Gold Hill (Nev.) News says it is no ticeable that when a merchant is figuring for the lowest possible number of cents on which to fail for the dollar, he all the more y gorously holds to his place in the exercise of the regular prayer meeting. AS THE QUARANTINE HAS OPENED, Mrs. Williamson opens her store again, and wishes to say to the public that she has a full line of millinery and notions, and she solicits every one to call and examine her will display on Saturday one of the handsomest line of ladies' trimmed sattern hats

CONSUMPTION CARED. - An old physician. retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and about the congressional and other gains in using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers Block, Rochester, New York.

TAKE NOTICE. -On the 1st of November

I will open at the old stand of Phil Howard, Eighth street, between Commercial and Washington avenue, a wholesale and retail depot for the sale of fish, oysters and game exclusively. Making the above articles a specialty, I will be enabled to suit the most fastidious, at prices that will compare favorably with Chicago or St. Louis. At all times can be found a line of fish and oysters never before offered in Cairo, such as New York count oysters in bulk, Mobile oyssters in bulk, Baltimore oysters in cans. In their season can be found fresh mackerel, fresh codfish, little neck clams, sea fish from Mobile, shrimp and all other delicacies from the sea, to tickle the palate and refresh the inner man. Celery and wild game of all kinds. It is my intention to keep such articles on hand at all times, so the public can depend upon being supplied. Orders from abroad will receive particular attention, and goods will be packed with care, and satisfaction guaran teed. City dealers will find it to their advantage to call upon me before ordering from Chicago or St. Louis. Hoping my endeavors to please, will be met by an apprecisting public. I remain yours, JOHN SPROAT.
